

Instructional Coaches: Supporting Each Other in the Process of School Improvement (Series)

Instructional Coaches working across the county, from the elementary school setting to high school settings, are encouraged to come and learn together how best to support teachers within this coaching role.

The focus of the sessions will be a book study. The book, Surviving But Not Yet Thriving: Essential Questions and Practical Answers for Experienced Literacy Coaches, will provide coaches with information on how to thrive uncovering unique issues coaches face. Topics will include: reconnecting to your intentions and hopes for literacy coaching; continuing to strengthen relationships with administrators & with teachers of all kinds; moving past previous mistakes & moving forward in a positive direction & gauging your current level of success and areas where you still might want to shape your work differently.

Session #1: September 8, 2009

Session #2: November 16, 2009
