THE COMMUNITY ADVISORY COMMITTEE WELCOMES AND ENCOURAGES YOUR PARTICIPATION. HOWEVER, TO INSURE AN ORDERLY MEETING, ALL PARTICIPANTS WILL BE ASKED TO OBSERVE THE FOLLOWING PROCEDURES.

Procedures for placing an item on the Community Advisory Committee agenda, making a presentation, or speaking of some issue on the agenda shall be as follows:

1. Arrangements to plan an item on the agenda and make a presentation concerning said item must be established with the Community Advisory Committee at least eight calendar days in advance of the meeting. The request to address the Community Advisory Committee about the item shall be submitted in writing and shall contain questions, problems, or positions to be presented with the name, address, and phone number of the person who will address the Committee and the group represented, if applicable.
2. At all regular meetings of the Community Advisory Committee, the presiding officer shall ask if there are members of the audience who wish to address the Community Advisory Committee on any item listed on the published agenda. They should stand, state their name, what group they represent, if any, and the item number to which they wish to speak. At the appropriate time, the presiding officer will call upon those parties who have been recognized to speak.
3. If it is approved by a majority of the Community Advisory Committee members present at the meeting, testimony may be taken at regularly scheduled meetings on matters not on the agenda provided that no action is taken by Community Advisory Committee on such matters at the same meeting at which such testimony is taken (EC 35145).

Persons addressing the Community Advisory Committee shall be guided by the following conditions:

1. The person addressing the Community Advisory Committee may be required to show a reasonable basis of interest in the affairs of the Community Advisory Committee, such as legal resident of the county, parent, guardian of children in Special Education programs or a representative of an organization having legitimate concern within the scope of the Community Advisory Committee or other bona fide individual interest in the proceedings of the Community Advisory Committee.
2. Remarks or charges by any person addressing the Community Advisory Committee which reflect adversely upon the character or motives of any person are out of order.
3. Five minutes may be allotted to each person addressing the Community Advisory Committee and a maximum of twenty minutes to any subject. The presiding officer of the Community Advisory Committee shall endeavor to allot equal time to persons having opposing views on a subject, at his/her discretion these general time limits may be altered.
4. It shall be in order for the members of the Community Advisory Committee, or the Community Advisory Committee chairperson, to interrupt the speaker at any time to ask questions or to make comments as frequently as necessary to clarify the discussion.
5. During the time when the Community Advisory Committee is holding official meetings, only those persons recognized by the presiding officer of the Community Advisory Committee shall be permitted to participate in the discussion. Any attempt by any person not so recognized to discuss issues of business before the Community Advisory Committee is out of order.
6. Conduct by a participant declared out of order by the presiding officer for violations of the above rules shall be grounds for summary termination by the presiding officer of that person's privilege of addressing the Community Advisory Committee for that scheduled meeting.

Thank you for your cooperation.
